

Māori Women and Pay and Employment Equity

Panel Chaired by Hekia Parata
Te Puni Kokiri

Abstract

Hekia Parata will chair a panel of experts to discuss the situation of Māori women with regard to pay and employment equity. The panel will examine Maori women's pay and positions in workplaces, their impact on citizenship participation at a personal level, and implications for the integrity of indigenous cultural infrastructure at a collective level. Areas for further research will be suggested.